

OPEN TO STUDENTS IN ALL CONCENTRATIONS

THE CHINESE IMMIGRANT EXPERIENCE IN AMERICA

NICOLE NEWENDORP, SOCIAL STUDIES

SPRING 2017 THURSDAYS 1:00-3:00PM

Toy Len Goon, American Mother of the Year 1952

A new engaged learning class that uses the history of Boston's Chinatown as a case study to explore the experiences of Chinese immigrants in Boston and the US from the late 1800s until the present. Open to students in all concentrations who are concurrently participating in a Harvard-affiliated service program involving Chinese Americans or recent Chinese immigrants in the greater Boston area. Capped at 12.

Questions? Contact: newendorp@fas.harvard.edu