Welcome Back!

Tutorials

Information sessions for spring junior tutorials will be held on Monday, January 26th from 4-6 p.m. in the Social Studies offices. Each tutor will be available for 30 minutes during this time (a schedule will be posted in the office) to discuss his or her tutorial.

Lottery preference forms are due by 10 a.m. on Tuesday, January 27th. You must turn in a hard copy of your preference form on time in order to receive full consideration in the lottery. Tutorial lists will be posted on our website by 2 p.m. on Wednesday, January 28th. Tutorials start meeting the week of February 2nd.

Thesis

As I am sure you know, you should be devoting a considerable amount of time this term to starting your senior thesis. In particular, you should be looking for a thesis topic and a thesis supervisor. You will need to let the Social Studies office know who will be supervising your thesis by Friday, April 17th, and your supervisor will need to submit a form to us confirming that he or she is working with you.

If you are having difficulty choosing a topic or finding a supervisor, please consult with your academic advisor, with Dr. Nicole Newendorp, the Assistant Director of Studies (newendor@fas or 496-5819), or with me (anya_bassett@harvard.edu or 496-1838).

As you know, you are required to complete a two-session thesis workshop during your junior year. Many of you have already done this in November. If you have not taken the workshop already, you must take it this term. The workshop is designed to provide you with basic information on writing a senior thesis and to help you get started finding a topic, choosing a supervisor, and applying for grants.

If you have not already completed the workshop, you should have already received an email from me, giving you information on registering for the February thesis workshop. Workshops will be held on Mondays, February 2nd and 9th, from 3-5 p.m. and Tuesdays, February 3rd and 10th, from 7-9 p.m. You must attend one session each week (unless you completed the first session in November) and turn in a short memo the second week.

ALL Social Studies Juniors must complete and hand in a copy of their thesis journals to the Social Studies office by March 2nd. Those of you who have already taken the workshop know about this assignment; those of you who will take the workshop in February will learn about it then.
